Director's Meeting

•	Wednesday, 6 February 1952
25X1	PRESENT: General Smith, Mr. Dulles, Mr. Becker, Col. White, Col. and Mr.	25X1
	The Director: S- 2-8-5-	25X1
	Mr. Dulles:
	a. Noted the item in the Log concerning request to the CIA Legislative Counsel and raised the question of our participation. It was noted that this was only a gratuitous service on our part since the Council does not have a Legislative Officer.	25X1
	b. Raised the question of Congressman Busbey's last letter and asked what action we now propose to take. After some discussion, the Director called Mr. Busbey and informed him that we could not make available Forms 5 on our employees since they were a part of security records. However, there was no objection to Busbey or an accredited representative of his office to come here, at which time form would be extracted from his security file and made available for review. A letter to this effect has been prepared to Busbey for the DCI's signature.	25X1

	b. Mentioned U. K. Armstrong's proposed conference on psychological warfare over Washington's birthday and the request to PSB for assistance in "hiring a hall". The Director indicated that he was thoroughly familiar with this proposal and this Agency would not have any part of the above conference. S. 2-15-5 c. Stated that George Harvey, Chief Clerk of the House Appropriations Committee, had indicated that the Committee would not accept the PSB budget as heretofore submitted (equally divided between CIA, State, and Defense). The alternatives offered by Harvey were (1) the complete budget be lumped into the CIA budget; and (2) PSB submit and defend its own budget. The Director stated that of the two he preferred the latter and directed that Col. White and Mr. Saunders discuss this matter with the Bureau of the Burget pointing out that it would be of great assistance to us if PSB could stand on its own feet. In connection with the CIA budget, Col. White noted that we might have to appear on the Hill within the next two or three weeks. The DCI asked that everyone concerned be notified and ready to go when we were called. This acceptance accomplished.
